I'm a bit slow off the mark (sorry), but I may possibly have a connection with the lady who sent you the letter in question.

I have a William Bosanko born around 1800 (estimated) who married Mary Thomas in Wendron in 1819. This could be the William mentioned in the letter as born 1802, at least I would be pleased if it were!

My couple went on to produce the following children:

Mary Ann B. 1819 (my gt-gt-grandmother)
Jenny B. 1821
Grace B. 1824
Eliza B. 1826
Priscilla B. 1829
Elizabeth B. 1831
William B. 1834 (finally!)
Martha B. 1836

Perhaps the lady in question, or someone else on the list, might connect with this.

Best wishes to all,

Den Pascoe

My Bosankos were all in Cornwall, starting with a William B. (miner) who married Mary Thomas in 1819 in Wendron. Among their 8 children were my gt-gt-gt-grandmother Mary Ann B. (chr 31 Oct 1819). The others were Jenny (1821), Grace (1824), Eliza (1826), Priscilla (1829), Elizabeth (1831), William (1834), and Martha (1836). Poor William!

Mary Ann B. married James Sims Pascoe in Wendron and they went on to have 8 children in Wendron.

Thanks for adding me to the list!

Here is my rundown of Bosanko ancestors:

It starts (so far) with William Bosanko, born between 1796 and 1801, miner, and wife Mary Thomas. They were married in Wendron 3 July 1819. It is tempting to accept the only possible William Bosanko born in Wendron (15 Oct 1799, to William and Grace) as my William.

Their children, all christened in Wendron (the last 4 at Lancarron estate), were:

Mary Ann	chr 31 Oct 1819	d approx 1857
Jenny	16 Sep 1821
Grace	18 Apr 1824
Eliza	29 Oct 1826
Priscilla	16 Mar 1829
Elizabeth	24 July 1831
William	2 Feb 1834
Martha	9 Mar 1836

and also Jane, age 15 living with the above (minus Jenny, Eliza, Priscilla, all perhaps deceased) in the 1841 census, so presumably another daughter christened in another parish, or perhaps not christened.

3 1
1841
15
26

(Incidentally, living next door in the 1841 census were Alexander Bosanko, wife Jane, and children Alexander, William, John, Benjamin, Mary, and Jane. Perhaps these were related?)

My interest is the above Mary Ann Bosanko. She was the first wife of James Sims Pascoe, m. 17 Sep 1829 in Wendron. They produced 7 children, including my gt-grandfather Thomas Henry Pascoe, b. 11 Dec 1856, Wendron.

I hope this connects with someone on the list!

Den Pascoe

Subject: Re: BOSANKO-D Digest V01 #15 "letter"

Hello again Den,

It transpires that the undermentioned, (highlighted in red), Grace is my 3 x gt grandmother who married Alexander Bosanko in Lanchester, Co. Durham in 1848. They left Wendron in Cornwall about 1847 ~ 1848 in search of work, (as unmarried half cousins), married in the North East of England in 1848, returned to Cornwall in 1849 for the birth of their first son Alexander, (my 2 x gt grandfather), then returned to the North East for the birth of second son William, (in Dec 1850), and remained there for the rest of their lives. I will leave you to work out the relationship between ourselves,(it's getting a bit late at night to concentrate on that amount of detail, let me know when you have something to report, ;-)) If you give me your snail mail address I can put a few bits and pieces in the post for you.

Best wishes

John

Hi Karla,

Nice to hear from you.
I do not have any info on a Frederick BOSANKO myself. However the link you tried to access is still available but not online. I am cc'ing this to Fayth in Wisconsin who had set up those pages but no longer has them online but still retains the information.
you did not mention what his stepfather's name was for me to look further, but if you have been to my website you may have seen the Cornish Census there (1841 - 1891) in case you do not have all those years of the census records. They are free to access.

Fayth is much more knowledgeable on the US lines than am I, so may be more help to you. However I would be interested in anything found.

Regards Kay

Subject: Bosanko Family

Hi;

I Googled my grandmother's maiden name, Bosanko, and found your site. I tried clicking on the link for "Missing Bosankos" but saw that, sadly, the page is no longer up. Anyway, if you are still interested in that topic, I thought that I might contribute information about my great-grandfather, Frederick Bosanko. He was from Cornwall, born around 1884/1885 in Wendron. His mother was named Mary and he was illegitimate and raised partly by his grandmother then by his mom and stepdad (after she married). I have located censuses for his family from this time on Ancestry.com when I had a free trial subscription. He moved to the U.S. at some point around 1910 and ended up in Michigan as a coal miner (he had worked in the mines in Cornwall since the age of 14). He fought for Canada in WWI and was wounded in the trenches. He and my great-grandmother had my grandmother, Dorothy, in 1917; she passed away in 2007.

If you know more about the family history and how we might be related, I would love to know!

Dear John.

Enclosed bapt. of Grace Bosanko April 18th 1824.
I thought when I saw your request that you might be related to a lady in Hexham that I corresponded with some years ago. I have been looking through my files, have come up with the enclosed. Moira sadly died in 1996 but we did meet in the Summer of 1995 when she came to Carnmenellis for a short holiday with her husband, she was a lovely person + we had a really good chat together.
I am sure that Moira would be very happy for you to have the information + photo-copies.

Best Wishes

Sheila.

Subject: Bosanko Family

Hi;

I Googled my grandmother's maiden name, Bosanko, and found your site. I tried clicking on the link for "Missing Bosankos" but saw that, sadly, the page is no longer up. Anyway, if you are still interested in that topic, I thought that I might contribute information about my great-grandfather, Frederick Bosanko. He was from Cornwall, born around 1884/1885 in Wendron. His mother was named Mary and he was illegitimate and raised partly by his grandmother then by his mom and stepdad (after she married). I have located censuses for his family from this time on Ancestry.com when I had a free trial subscription. He moved to the U.S. at some point around 1910 and ended up in Michigan as a coal miner (he had worked in the mines in Cornwall since the age of 14). He fought for Canada in WWI and was wounded in the trenches. He and my great-grandmother had my grandmother, Dorothy, in 1917; she passed away in 2007.

If you know more about the family history and how we might be related, I would love to know!

Thanks,
Karla Keppner

Thanks, Fayth!

Other than my grandmother, he had two other daughters from two other marriages (both in the states), one before my great-grandmother and one after she died. I don't know what happened to my grand-mother's oldest half-sister, but I believe the younger is still alive and living in California (her name is Marjory and I forget her married name). This is, unfortunately, where my knowledge ends.

I have 4 unconnected Fred Bosankos (and they don't fit as any of my "Alfred"(s) as the dates don't match at all.

x --1) Frederick James Bosanko married to a woman named Seanna (first name only was given) Jun 1906
He was on the military rolls but fought in Canada with the Canadian military, but it shows his residence as Ironwood, Michigan.

--2) One Fred J. BOSANKO married to a "Mrs". Bosanko (married name) but that was April 1957 in Florida. Cora Mae Keller x --3) Fred BOSANKO that got married Bessemer, Gogebic County, Michigan 5 Oct 1920 (that's weird that it's Michigan) Wife name Emma Eddy. (this could be same as below, I don't want to assume wrong, that's a pretty late marriage 2nd marriage x --4) Fred BOSANKO was born 19 Nov 1866 and died Aug 1966 in Elmhurst or Elgin, Illinois. (I don't know anything him at all)

I got nothing,no parents, no wife, no kids (only the Soc Sec. Death Index, and can't match him to anyone.

and none of them fit. How about you?

Karla
I have been looking further into your family & have some further information for you if you are interested. I have located information on Dorothy's older sister her name was Pheobe Blanch Bosanko. I am not quite sure what the situation was but her mother (Beatrice Mary Martin Bosanko) married a Richard Henry Jelbert in 1915.
Pheobe was raised as Phoebe Jelbert in the Ironwood area. If you are interested I can scan the things I have & email them to you. I would be interested in any information you might have on Dorothy, her mother, Dorothy's marriage, children. Dorothy is listed many times in the Ironwood Daily Globeas a soloist.

Fayth,

Yes, please scan and email if you can. My dad is especially interested in the Ironwood Daily Globeas mentions, if you have those available. I never knew my grandmother's older half-sister's name, although they did meet a few times. Fred was married to Pheobe's mother (his first wife). The story we always heard was that he came home early, caught her with another man, and the marriage soon ended. I knew she lived in the Ironwood area, but am unsure how that came about. My grandmother (Dorothy) met her once when they were children and once as adults, but they never kept in touch and my grandmother did not speak of her that much.

After Fred's second wife (my great-grandmother, Saima) died in 1919, Fred married his third wife and they had a daughter, Marjorie, who (last we heard) was living on the west coast with her husband, Tony Joannides. Marjie and Tony have three children, Tony (I believe short for Antonia), Michael, and Dorothy (name for my grandmother). We lost touch with them after my grandmother died in 2007.

Dorothy played piano and organ and her goal was to be a music teacher. She was a National Merit scholar in high school and received a music scholarship for college. Unfortunately, as it was not a full scholarship and at the height of the depression, she was unable to attend. She met my grandfather, Edwin Keppner (born June 11, 1910), while he was working at a logging camp in the Ironwood area. She went to Chicago (where Ed was from) to visit him after his job at the camp ended and they decided to get married. She was 19 at the time, so this was most likely in 1936 or 1937. They had two children, Edwin, Jr. (born 1940) and my dad, Donald, born June 9, 1946 and lived in the Chicago area, specifically Elmhurst and Yorkfield. Dorothy got a job managing the office for a local dairy company after both her kids were in school and worked there until my grandfather took early retirement from his job and they decided to move down south. They initially moved to Fairhope, Alabama and then once again to Georgia before settling in Panama City Beach, FL. They remained there until 2005, at which point where they were having difficulty living on their own. At this time, it became apparent that my grandmother had senile dementia and my grandfather was becoming increasingly physically frail, so my parents moved them in with them here in Athens, GA. My grandfather passed away in 2006 and my grandmother in 2007 her in Athens.

My dad and his brother are estranged and have been so off and on for most of their adult lives. My uncle, Edwin Keppner, Jr., currently lives in Panama City with his second wife, Lisa. He has a PhD in, I believe, some area of parasitology. His first wife, Lynn, also lives in the Panama City Beach area. He has no children from either marriage.

My dad, Donald Keppner, has a PhD in Neurophysiology from Northeastern University in IL. He was an amateur boxer when he was younger and lost the Chicago city title on a close decision. Professionally, he has worked as both a professor of psychology (as well as teaching statistics) and a clinical psychologist. He was featured on the Opra Winfrey show when she still broadcast out of Chicago in an episode about anorexia in men (this was in the late 1980s or early 1990s) as he had treated a patient in Chicago that had not relapsed. He and my mom, Victoria Ahmer, moved from the Chicago area to Buford, GA sometime in the 1970s. They were married in 1978 and are still married. I was born in Commerce, GA on July 20, 1983. We moved to Athens (about 25 minutes south of Commerce) in 1987, shortly before my brother was born on August 6 of that year. My parents retired to Mexico in 2007 but are currently planning to move back to Athens sometime this year.

My parents are currently visiting me and have brought a lot of stuff up from Mexico, including old photos of Dorothy, Marjie, and Fred. I also have a portrait or two of Saima, Dorothy's mom. These may take a little while to dig out, but let me know if you are interested and I can scan and send some pictures. I am planning on scanning some of them anyway just to preserve them.

Thanks,
Karla

have been received by John Kennedy, adjutant of Ironwood Post No. 5 of the American Legion and are being distributed to ex-service men who call for them.

Sorry--I misread; I though Saima was listed as his first wife. Saima's maiden name was Heikenin/Hiekinen or some other variation (I cannot remember the exact spelling). She was primarily raised in Sandstone, Minnesota where her parents had a dairy farm. She was also a nurse and was killed in the flu epidemic in 1919, as shown in the documents. Another note, my grandmother, Dorothy May, was actually born August 26, 1917. Thank you for all of the information, I am forwarding it to my dad. Let me know if you have any other quesitons. Again, I really appreciate all of the information.
